

In Memory of

Each year we honor a woman who has lost the battle.

For the second Whisper Journey, we walk for Sarah Ramsey Hancock.

Sarah Ramsey Hancock

Dec. 22, 1954 - Sept. 18, 2005

Sarah Hancock was a vivacious, active mother of two loving boys. Since 1985, she was office manager for Dr. Richard Morrison. Diagnosed in April 2001, she fought ovarian cancer for 4 years. Sarah lived life to the fullest and continued to work even while undergoing treatment. Her courage, dignity, and perseverance inspired everyone around her.

Regina Bowen Smith

Our first honoree
May 20, 1948 - Aug. 30, 2003

Regina Smith was a devoted wife of 34 years, mother of two children and Bible history teacher at Hixson High School. She was diagnosed in 2002 and died after a 14 1/2 month battle.

For More Information

Call Maureen Wagner
NOCC SE TN Division President
423-899-6390

or

Alison Moore
Event Coordinator
423-778-6863

Email setn.nocc@ovarian.org.

Southeastern TN Division
8617 Millard Lee Lane, Apt C
Chattanooga, TN 37416

other sponsors & participants for your support in ovarian cancer awareness

Thank You

2nd Annual Ovarian Cancer Awareness Event
In Memory of Sarah Ramsey Hancock and in honor of all women with ovarian cancer

ovarian cancer ... it whispers, so listen

whisper journey

September 22, 2006
Friday, 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.
6 p.m. Journey Begins
7 p.m. Butterfly Ceremony
8 p.m. Candlelight Vigil
First Tennessee Pavilion

